++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Becoming largely dry and chilly overnight, then mostly bright Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A few showers continuing through this evening, however becoming largely dry overnight with clear periods. Winds slowly easing and turning chilly, with a touch of grass frost possible in more rural areas. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
Plenty of sunshine through the morning, but turning cloudier during the afternoon with some light rain possible later in the day. Feeling warmer than on Tuesday with much lighter winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Breezier and cloudier on Thursday, with some rain in the northwest, mainly Snowdonia. Generally dry and bright on Friday and Saturday after patchy morning fog has lifted. Feeling warmer.
